

INFORMATION FOR STUDENT

If you wish to take a course at another university for transfer credit to Acadia, you must complete this form. Your request will be reviewed, and if approved, the host university will be issued a copy of this form and a copy of your transcript. You are reminded that normally the last sixty hours (60h) required for your degree must be taken at Acadia, although you may transfer from elsewhere six hours (6h) of the last sixty hours (60h).

Letters of permission cannot be approved for students with an outstanding account balance at Acadia University.

Submit this form to the Registrar's Office at Acadia with

- payment ($10 for mail; $15 for fax). Fees are refundable if the course(s) are not approved for transfer credit). Complete credit card information at bottom of form.
- a description of the course for which permission to transfer is sought.

Note: The suitability of the specific course(s) can be established by the Dean, Director or Department Head, but transferability on the basis of university regulations will be assessed by the Registrar before a letter of permission is granted.
